

Comment from Lori Schreier

I am requesting that NHTSA not authorize or require V2V radar or any kind of radar in cars. I am electro sensitive and from what I understand radar is one of the worst radio frequency offenders to the human body. I want to be able to stay away from these signals and the American public deserves the same. Spend more money on eliminating drunk driving and you will accomplish more road safety. Thank you