

Comment from Lenwood Heath

I oppose any vehicle that does not have a steering wheel, a gear shift, and foot pedals, as it necessarily removes an essential safety component, namely, a responsible human, from the system.