

Comment from Brian Smith

The official communication notifying owners of this recall was issued 7/2016, I think it is long past time for a decision to be rendered on this docket. All my other vehicles that had Takata airbags (BMW and Honda) have already been replaced under recall programs. At a minimum I believe that vehicles operated in high temperature high humidity environments should be required to be replaced by the vehicle manufacturer.